Doctoral Admission Requirements

The Doctoral admissions requirements and procedures are subject to all regulations specified for graduate studies in the University’s Graduate Bulletin for the academic year in which the doctoral student first matriculates. To view the University’s Graduate Bulletin, see FSU Grad Bulletin (http://registrar.fsu.edu/bulletin/grad/info/). Specifically, admission requirements include:

• Achieving a 3.5 GPA on a 4.0 scale, earning a Master’s degree from an accredited institution, meeting a percentile ranking of 55% on the Verbal and 25% on the Quantitative portions on the GRE, and earning a Bachelor degree from a nationally accredited college or university in art, art education or related fields (students may satisfy deficiencies upon admissions into the program).

• The applicant must be in good standing in the institution of higher education last attended.
