art workshops

The FSU Saturday School and Summer Workshops are run by a group of faculty and students at FSU in the art education department! Our mission is to facilitate K-12 kids' engagement in independent, inquiry-driven art-making. We believe weekends and summer should be an opportunity to explore the world through creativity, imagination, and play. Kids shouldn't have to wait to grow up to do or be something. The time is now; your creativity awaits!

WHAT TO BRING

CHECK LIST

- LUNCH. Snacks will be available but each student should bring their own lunch. (for summer camp only)
- DRINKS. Water is available on campus.
- CELL PHONES & HEADPHONES. Phones are permitted. Students should bring a phone charger as filming or taking pictures with a phone drains the battery. Head phones may be used. (please do not send video games)
- CLOTHING.
 - A long-sleeved hoodie is recommended, The campus location has a strong air conditioning system!
 - Sunglasses, comfortable shoes, and sunscreen (in case we spend time outside or visit the museum on campus)
 - All clothing should be “art friendly” and able to withstand a smattering of paint.
 - Dress code. There is no official dress code. We ask that students not dress in anything they typically wouldn't wear to school
- BACKPACK. This is optional, but students will need to keep track of a notebook, supplies, beverage, sunglasses, etc.
